SCI takes the fight for hunters’ rights directly to the halls of power in D.C., where our litigation team works 24/7 on your behalf for hunter advocacy, conservation and access. Our team was key in getting the “Sportsmen’s Package” of pro-hunting legislation to H.R. 4089, which passed the House just last year. SCI is leading the charge wherever your interests are at stake.

A former Ranger for the U.S. Forest Service in Colorado, Todd is now celebrating his 20th year with the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation as host of the popular hunting and fishing TV show, Outdoor Oklahoma. His credentials as a seasoned outdoorsman are numerous, but the greatest accomplishment of his life has been the ability to overcome monumental physical obstacles. Not even multiple birth defects to his arms, hands, legs and feet, or growing up in a wheelchair could slow Todd down from becoming one of the most widely-recognized outdoorsmen in Oklahoma.
THE MISSION OF THE OKLAHOMA STATION CHAPTER SCI IS TO PROTECT THE FREEDOM TO HUNT AND TO PROMOTE WILDLIFE CONSERVATION IN THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA & WORLDWIDE.

Oklahoma Station, SCI’s Humanitarian, Educational and Conservation programs continue to grow and expand well beyond their humble beginnings. However, these efforts are only as successful as the support the program receives. Corporate, individual and foundational giving allows SCI and the greater membership to continually expand the scope and influence of the organization. Your contributions are essential to the health of these worthwhile projects. Please show your support of Safari Club International and all of its many worthwhile programs by generously participating in this year’s Annual Banquet and Auction.

WE HAVE AN ELK HUNT! Way back OSCSCI populated the heard, now it is a reality! OK, not just our effort but it was key!

Oklahoma Station - SCI Supports and Contributes Funds Locally & Nationally

The future of hunting is up to each one of us. It is our financial donations, our efforts in the political arena, and our ability to educate the uninformed public of the important role hunting plays in the welfare of the animal population and their habitat. Our activities and energy must focus on 3 areas - Conservation, Education, and Governmental affairs.

We, the members of SCI, are the last best chance that wildlife has to survive in a healthy habitat, and we have to preserve our right to hunt.

Oklahoma Station Chapter, SCI is a 501 c (3) Charitable Status Organization

Protect the Freedom to Hunt

FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO PROTECT OUR FREEDOM TO HUNT & WILDLIFE CONSERVATION PROGRAMS - Thirty percent (30%) of net monies raised by the Oklahoma Station Chapter support programs that provide for full-time staff lobbyists & biologists in Washington, DC. Sci is the only hunting organization that has full-time lobbyists & biologists working to provide sound scientific information to influence legislation and regulations that affect hunting both at the federal and state levels. OVER 70% of funds raised by the Oklahoma Station Chapter are used in Oklahoma for hunting-education, wildlife-conservation and humanitarian-services programs.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO OTHER CHAPTERS FIGHTING ANTI HUNTING REFERENDUMS IN THEIR STATES. Support to Alaska Chapter to defeat a wolf referendum that would decimate ungulates (DEFEATED!).

Conservation

Current – and Future Involvement: Currently developing a total Outdoor Ranch facility, in Oklahoma, that will provide perpetual outdoor activities including hunting venues for Youth, Wounded Warriors, and Make a Wish Foundation thanks to a benefactor to the Oklahoma Station Chapter Safari Club International in the Ouachita Mountains of Eastern Central, Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA HABITAT DONOR PROGRAM -

- Financial support for the Hackberry Flats Wetlands project, Frederick, OK.
- Financial support for a “Quality Deer Management” program in Lincoln County, OK.

RESTORATION OF RUFFED GROUSE & PRAIRIE CHICKEN - Financial support towards restoration of ruffed grouse and Greater Prairie Chicken habitat in Oklahoma. Support for Audubon Society/OSC conservation project to protect the threatened Lesser Prairie Chicken in Northwest Oklahoma in conjunction with the Lesser Prairie Chicken festival.
INTRODUCED EIGHT (8) ELK INTO THE EXISTING HERD IN SE. OKLAHOMA - Chapter financed the purchase, transportation and release of 5 mature bred cow elk and 2 mature bulls plus radio-collar transmitters for monitoring purposes. These 8 elk will improve the gene pool in the existing elk herd in SE Oklahoma which is in cooperation with the Timberline Elk Ranch, Cushing, Oklahoma, and the ODWC.

AIR BOAT (18 X 8’), 502 CU. INCH CHEVROLET ENGINE 502 HP RATING WAS PURCHASED FOR OKLAHOMA DEPT OF WILDLIFE CONSERVATION USE. Over the past several years, the ODWC has worked to develop comprehensive lake-level plans supporting Japanese millet-seeding programs on Oklahoma Corps of Engineers lakes. Most of these areas are inaccessible to conventional boats due to very shallow water depths and are quite extensive in size, ranging from just a few acres to several hundred. The airboat offers a much higher degree of safety and durability, in addition to increased accessibility to the seeding areas, essential to ensuring the program’s continued success.

ODWC Contributions – Since the foundation of the Oklahoma Station Chapter of SCI, over $300,000 has been funded for various Wildlife Department programs either through direct funding or purchase of equipment for ODWC use.

Education

OSU SHOTGUN CLUB – OSU Gun Club Representing Oklahoma State University, we are dedicated to practicing and teaching gun safety while also participating in recreational shooting. We participate in competitions with other universities all over the United States, including but not limited to Wyoming, Colorado, Texas, Kansas, and others. OSCSCI worked with the gun club to fund their new Trailer and cargo container.

SIGNIFICANT FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR YOUTH EDUCATION & OUTDOOR PROGRAMS – Archery in the Schools program ($19,500), Last Frontier Council - Boy Scouts of America; Eddy Eagle Gun Safety program; Make a Wish Foundation, Youth Hunter Education Challenge, & the 4H Youth Shooting Team. Further provided funding to the ODWC to facilitate The Oklahoma Scholastic Shooting Programs and introduction in the schools of the Explore Bow Hunting Program

OKLAHOMA CITY GUN CLUB YOUTH SHOOTING AREA – Helped fund the structures needed to create a separate youth shooting area and the gun club with a $1500.00 donation

OKLAHOMA DEPT OF WILDLIFE CONSERVATION COLORING BOOKS - We purchased 65,000 wildlife conservation coloring books for school children.

APPRENTICE HUNTER PROGRAM - An annual youth essay writing contest that focuses on America’s hunting heritage; co-sponsored by the Okla. Dept of Wildlife Conservation. Two students in the 11-14 age category win scholarships to attend a weeklong program at the YO Ranch in Mountain Home, Texas. One boy and one girl, 15-17, each win a guided pronghorn antelope hunt in New Mexico and presentation of their mounts at the Annual OSC Awards Banquet & Charity Fundraiser.

THE AMERICAN WILDERNESS LEADERSHIP SCHOOL - Each year, our Chapter and the Okla. Dept. of Wildlife Conservation sponsor two Oklahoma educators, and some years 3, for an 8-day experience at SCI’s Granite Ranch near Jackson, Wyoming, in fields of wildlife ecology, firearm safety and shooting sports, camping, white-water rafting, stream ecology, natural resource management with a base knowledge from which to evaluate conservation efforts. They bring this training back to their classrooms to educate thousands of Oklahoma youth on the value of hunting as a wildlife management tool.

STEP PROGRAM – Okla. Dept of Wildlife Conservation’s Shotgun Training Education Program (“STEP”) – OSC-SCI supported this program by originally purchasing a custom built 26-foot long gooseneck equipment trailer. OSC purchased two additional trailers. These trailers carry the program’s portable trap machines, firearms, ammunition, safety and gun maintenance equipment. In the past 10 years, 100,000 persons in the state of Oklahoma (65% are youth under the age of 18) have participated in STEP, leaning the importance of hunting as a conservation and management tool and improving their shooting skills to ensure the humane harvesting of wildlife.
OPERATION GAME THIEF TRAILER – Okla. Dept of Wildlife Conservation’s Operation Game Thief (“OGT”) – OSC-SCI supported this program by supplying funding in excess of $28,500. The OGT is a program of the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation designed specifically to stop illegal killing of the fish and game which belong to YOU, whether you’re a sportsman or not. It’s a big problem with no simple solution. Help from the public sportsmen, makes a difference.

One day before the opening of a recent deer season, two men killed four whitetail bucks. Late one summer night, three men steered their boat across a state reservoir, stopped at their illegal net site and hauled in a load of striped bass and other open-water fish they could sell for $1 a pound on the commercial market.

In each of these examples, you were the loser. You lost hunting and fishing opportunities or the chance to view wildlife in their natural surroundings. At the same time, law-abiding sportsmen received a bad reputation from those who fail to distinguish between legal and illegal hunting. OGT is something everyone can do to help wildlife and help us apprehend the poachers.

OKLAHOMA WILDLIFE EXPO – Our Chapter supports the ODWC - Wildlife Expo with significant funding and with workers. This is the biggest and the most successful comprehensive hands-on outdoor education experience and recreation event in State history. Approximately 45,000 attend annually. In 2008, OSC began “Predators of Oklahoma” with a game for thousands of youth to identify the animals and win a prize for successfully doing so (all eventually won). This program continues each year.

WILDLIFE HERITAGE CENTER MUSEUM, ANTLERS, OK. – Our Chapter contributed to the building of the museum/learning center in SE Oklahoma. The operation is a joint agreement of the Okla. Dept of Commerce, Okla. Tourism and Recreation Dept and the Okla. Dept of Wildlife. The facility will be utilized as a regional tourism attraction while at the same time serving as a wildlife and natural resource conservation public education center.

SAFARI IN A BOX - Safari in a Box is a K-12 education kit designed to provide exciting, hands-on learning. It gives teachers and others who work with young people resources and ideas to introduce youth to important concepts of habitat, wildlife management and impacts resulting from human and wildlife interactions. Initial SIB placement was in memory of OSC member David Rocker.

"SCI SAVES CSI" - 2009 support of OSU's "Insect Adventure", a project which teaches basic conservation principles to over 300,000 individuals in Oklahoma each year (and also contributes to the conservation of the endangered American burying beetle, a species valuable in Crime Scene Analysis).

Humanitarian Services

SAFARI-CARE – On numerous occasions, OSC members have traveled internationally and carried medical, educational and relief supplies to villages in need of support.

SPORTSMEN AGAINST HUNGER – OSC originally funded 100% of operating expenses for the program in excess of $200,000 annual budget. OSC also managed the program State-wide for over 10 years. OSC continues to financially support this program annually, with a $ 2,000 contribution to ODWC.

SENSORY SAFARI DAY - A hands-on adventure for sightless and sight-impaired children and adults. Members loan their animal mounts for these people to see for the first time, through their fingertips, animals from around the world. The event is co-sponsored by the Okla. Dept. Wildlife Conservation, Oklahoma Station Chapter - SCI and the H&H Gun Range.

VETERANS' HUNTS – OSC organized Mid-East-Conflict veterans’ hunts in conjunction with Jay Barczak of Wild Game Outfitters-Duchess Creek Ranch, Porum, OK, and in conjunction with other supporters.
- Three veterans were drawn from public nominations for guided elk and deer hunts complete with all accommodations.
- OSC and Mankazana Safaris presented a Purple-Heart veteran the hunt of a lifetime. OSC supports our troops who protect our freedoms!
- OSC hosted a disabled Marine Sniper Scout on a PERECT July Sheep hunt with Windsong Adventures in Eastern Oklahoma.
- OSC donates annually to Bowman Lodge Shootout which in turn creates hunting opportunities exclusively for disabled veterans.
For Immediate Press Release: In the fall of 2014, Oklahoma Stations Chapter Safari Club International funded the Archery in the Schools program for Edmond Memorial. Here is their response in Jan 2015 after just a couple months of having this program. I am not sure we can say more!

Just wanted to send you a picture of part of Edmond Memorial’s Archery Club members. We were able to get one match in prior to Christmas. Our scores were high enough to get the team into regionals. We hope that some of the kids will qualify for state. Not sure the team will but we think a few of the kids should do well enough to move on.

The kids are really loving it. We have several who have never shot before and are just doing great. Their self-esteem seems to be really getting a boost as well. We usually have about 25 – 30 kids at each practice. Several that are in the PE class that has been doing the archery program make sure they come to the after school practice. They want to shoot as much as they are allowed.

Thank you for all of your help, for Safari Club Internationals generous donations, and for H&H. We truly appreciate it and wouldn’t be here without y’all.

Sincerely, Lisa Bradford

OSCSCI is VERY PROUD to sponsor these programs and if any school out there still does not have an Archery in the Schools program, PLEASE contact us to help correct this issue 😊
2014 Conservation Education Scholarship

Two educators will be awarded a scholarship to an eight-day conservation education school at Safari Club International’s American Wilderness Leadership School (AWLS) at Granite Ranch near Jackson, Wyoming. The AWLS program covers many different aspects of conservation education.

Lodging, meals and training materials will be provided by Oklahoma Station Chapter Safari Club International. Transportation to Jackson, Wyoming, will be covered by the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation.

Educator applications are judged in categories such as:

- Training in conservation education or environmental education programs.
- Current programs you are conducting in your school and community with a conservation and environmental emphasis.
- Past programs you have conducted with a conservation and environmental emphasis.
- Teachers of state winners in the youth essay contest: Hunting: Sharing the Heritage, will receive priority consideration.
- The AWLS program is conducted during the summer. AWLS presents an outdoor program for educators which concentrates on natural resource management and provides participants with a base knowledge from which they may evaluate conservation efforts. Participants learn about stream ecology, map and compass, language arts and creative writing in an outdoor setting, fly tying, shooting sports, wildlife management, the Yellowstone ecosystem, camping, white-water rafting, educational resources and how to implement outdoor education ideas. Six sessions will be offered June through August of 2015.

Hunting sharing the heritage; the Bow Hunt

It all started when I was two years old sitting in a deer stand. My dad was still here then and I would get to go with him. When he left I thought I may never get to hunt again. I am so lucky to have two older brothers who totally didn’t let that happen. When I was eight I got to feel the thrill of looking down the barrel of my gun and shooting my first buck. The excitement of that moment will stay with me for my whole life. But my brother told me just wait till you shoot one with a bow.

My brothers are both bow hunters and tried to explain to me why hunting with a bow is so different. The school I attend has no classes that have anything to do with archery so I just thought I would stick with my gun. Again I was wrong. My brother bought a new bow so he could give me his old one. That’s when I really learned about hunting. Every day outside we went, he purchased a target and he spent hours teaching me how to shoot. Then he did something even more amazing he went out to his own deer

As the Editor of a couple magazines, I can tell you it is simply impossible to write a good story, on a set topic, if you do not have an interest and history with that topic. These kids are what the ODWC and Safari Club are ALL ABOUT!

The hopes and dreams of all of us revolve around the future generations and the heritage of hunting. With the help of everyone, it will be those hopes and dreams we can pass the torch along to a generation of kids like our winners here.

The future of hunting is always being challenged, and sadly, it is mostly from folks that have no idea what it is all about. With the youth generation writing stories like these and others, it not only gives them a chance to write about something they love, but it is also educating those others who have no experience in the outdoors.

My young literary geniuses keep the pens flowing! Send me your new writings to publish in our magazines and let’s make sure the heritage and torch are in the firm hands of a very capable generation. Your writings will keep our hunting world alive and well!

Safari Trails
lease put a stand up and started teaching me about scouting. We went scouting for days he taught me to look for rubs and scrapes. He put up trail cameras and we began graphing times and we even named the deer on the camera so we would be able to identify each deer and their patterns. He explained that Archery hunting took more skill and planning than rifle hunting.

Part of what he taught me was to pick how we wanted our deer population to be. Not to plan to just shoot, but save the smaller bucks so they could grow bigger each year. My brother did all this for me. He didn’t have to he could have continued hunting himself but he wanted me to become a skilled hunter. A hunter that knew there was more than just going out and shooting deer. Now it was time, deer season was here, I was nervous, why I wondered I had been hunting for years I had killed two mountable bucks, I was nervous because I was using my bow for the first time.

Four A.M. was finally here, I didn’t sleep at all I was up dressed in my hunting camo and had my bow, arrows, quiver, release and my rope to pull my bow up the tree. My brother was ready to go; he took me to my stand and waited patiently while I climbed up. Then he was gone to his own stand. I sat there in the stand in the dark remembering and going over everything he had told me. I also realized I was there in that tree because my brother took the time to help me to basically do what my dad would have done had he been around. The hours he spent not only teaching me archery skills and shooting but he prepared a place for me to hunt. He did this because archery hunting is a very important part of his life and he wanted to share that with me. It is something we can do together for the rest of our lives and something each of us may have the opportunity to teach our own sons or daughters one day.

I sat there watching as nature woke up listening to every sound waiting for that deer to come out. I all of a sudden realized what my brother meant about archery being a “skilled form” of hunting. When I had my gun the deer could be much farther away. I could aim and shoot and have a better chance but I had a bow. I had to sit so still and let the deer come in closer to get a good shot and not hit the deer in the belly or someplace else that would injure it but not kill it. The woods seem different when you are hunting in archery season. I could hear every sound then I heard the shuffling of the leaves and I knew that I may get the opportunity to use my bow. Sure enough right there she was, yes it was a doe and I was hoping for a buck but it was a deer. Everything my brother said was in my head I just had to remember to do it. If I had been hunting with a rifle it would have been over but I needed her to come closer. Was I quiet enough? Would she smell me? Could I make my shot count and not let my arrow hit a branch? I put the arrow in place, got the release pulled back looked through my peep everything seemed right so I squeezed the trigger on my release. The sound of the arrow leaving the bow was so different than the loud bang of my rifle. I watched as the doe ran and then fell to the ground, I had done it! I had used my bow and I totally understood what my brother meant about the challenge of a bow kill.

I now am a bow hunter I like the challenge of hunting. It takes patience and planning, lots of practice and knowledge of things like distance, wind, scent control and being disciplined to wait till the time is right. Hunting is a very important part of my life. I have learned patience, respect, safety. I have learned to love the land and the sport of hunting. Most importantly I have learned that a brothers’ love can be one of the best things in the world. Hunting has taught me about life and death, joy and sorrow, success and defeat along with pain and suffering. I have watched the woods wake up and go to sleep. I have heard the rustle of leaves and in an instant heard my own heart race in the quiet of the woods when a deer appeared. When in the woods I see all that God has created being surrounded by nature.

My brother didn’t have to take responsibility for me learning to hunt with a bow. He didn’t have to teach me how to scout, to plan or prepare for the hunt. I consider myself a very lucky boy that my brother is a hunter and that he not only cared about me but he cared about the art of bow hunting. Putting up deer stands, a slow ride through the woods on a four wheeler looking for rubs, listening to the woodpeckers or owls while I sit in a tree, watching the sun come up having my bow and arrows right there. In the woods in the early morning sunrises or evening sunsets I am a very lucky boy indeed. I am a hunter but more than that I am a brother of a hunter.
Hunting: Sharing the Heritage

Just what makes hunting a heritage my family enjoys?

My dad starting hunting coyotes while he was still young and then moved on to bigger game. Now he has shot countless deer, bull and cow elk, bears, and the list continues. It’s something he’s really come to like.

He married a great shot-my mom- and she likes hunting as well. The first thing she shot was a deer and since then she’s brought down many animals.

My dad’s parents are amazing shooters as well. Both have shot snakes in their front yard and who knows what else. And now it’s being passed to my younger siblings and me. Hunting runs in the family.

But why do we enjoy the heritage of hunting?

All the pretty mornings and evenings I’ve spent with Dad while waiting on deer have added up, but it’s always good father/daughter time. One of my favorite hunts was in 2011 when I shot the first mule deer to ever be shot on our ranch. Here’s the story...

I got up that foggy morning at 6:00 to hunt with Dad. After arriving at our spot, we sat down on a big hill to watch for any deer. And sat and sat. as it grew brighter we could see two does a ways off, but because of the area we were in, we couldn’t shoot females anyways. So we naturally passed them up.

After sitting for some time, my uncle called my dad for their usual morning phone call. The conversation was quiet and frank, but then dad knelt to peek behind us. All at once he said quietly, yet really excited, “there he is!” and my dad’s flip-phone slapped shut, obviously ending the call.

Dad told me to get ready to shoot and since I was facing the opposite direction it wasn’t as easy as pie. I was excited, of course, but calmed myself enough to get up a little and crawl around some brush so I could at least see the buck. In the process, I got tangled in a root and fell on to the sandy hill, but harmed nothing. It was kind of funny, though a little embarrassing.

I pulled myself from the ground and tried to get ready to shoot... but I couldn’t

I was shaking too much!

The buck was now attempting to walk away so I had to do something quick. He stopped, only to walk again. He kept up that walk and stop game for a while.

Dad whispered, “Are you ready?”

“I’m shaky,” I replied.

But thankfully, the buck finally came to a complete stop. All at once I pulled the trigger.

Had I hit him? Was he down? All these questions filled my head. “You hit him!”

I watched in silence as the buck trotted away. But dad was sure I had hit him... why was he running away? The world seemed quiet and made us double guess things. Maybe I hadn’t hit him after all!
Dad called my uncle back and told him the news while we walked to my dead deer. Upon approaching the deer, I looked down at a beautiful 5x4 mule deer buck. Both my dad and I were happy campers on the way to the house that morning.

The quiet mornings, peaceful evenings, migrating birds overhead, rustling grass, crickets, and the second of stillness before pulling the trigger, alongside a loved one is what makes hunting a very enjoyable thing for our family.

Thus, hunting is something that has indeed been passed down to new generations and is something that should continue. I’m thankful for my parents for letting us experience the outdoors this way.
Hunting: Sharing the Heritage

Historically, hunting was an important survival skill of our ancestors. Even before Oklahoma became a state, our forefathers depended on hunting as a means to put food on the table. Early hunters were very knowledgeable in specific animals’ life patterns, trapping, tracking, and were excellent marksmen with a variety of weapons. These hunting skills were handed down from generation to generation, until society deemed them unnecessary and large scale agriculture producers were able to provide an abundance of food.

Today we know the public’s perception of hunting has drastically changed compared to that of our forefathers’. There are several groups and individuals that feel hunting is inhumane. Most people are so far removed from the land that they have no understanding of where their food comes from. As hunters it is up to us to educate the public that hunting is not merely for sport. Not only is it a source of food, hunting also serves as a means of wildlife population control. Hunting is a valuable tool to control populations of some species that might otherwise exceed the carrying capacity of their habitat. This could threaten the well-being of other wildlife species and, in some cases, people’s health and safety.

Every year I look forward to fall, because that’s when my father and I will share a new hunting adventure. All year long we have been planning how to match our skills and wits with nature to have a successful hunt. Words cannot express the amazing experiences I have enjoyed while hunting with my dad, like the rustling sound in the tall grass that comes right before a covey of quail takes flight. Nothing is more breathtaking than watching a ring-neck pheasant as it takes off in a swift, direct flight with strong wing beats voicing “caw-caw” as a warning, or when my heart is pounding so hard from the adrenalin rush of having a monster buck in the cross hairs of my rifle. But more importantly, hunting has helped me develop characteristics like discipline, patience, responsibility, competences, and self-confidence.

Oklahoma’s large number of wildlife is closely regulated through hunting season by the state wildlife department. For the privilege of hunting, sportsmen are required to pay fees through hunting licenses, stamps, and tags. This money is used to provide educational programs teach hunters about hunting safety, wildlife management and identification, and the importance of being a responsible hunter. So you see, the license fees hunters pay help keep the outdoor heritage alive for future generations. But it is much more than just a recreational sport; hunting puts us in touch with our past and with ourselves. Preservation for hunting is about values, heritage, and tradition.

Hunting is an important part of our heritage. It represents food for the table, lessons for living, time for family bonding. We must ensure that each generation present and future has the opportunity to participate in this time-honored tradition.
I have been on dozens of hunts in my lifetime. Using bows, rifles, and muzzleloaders. But, out of all of those hunts, my proudest was when I got my first deer. I am more proud of myself for harvesting that deer than anything else I have ever done. It wasn’t a monster. It wasn’t a two-hundred pound, fourteen point buck. Not a trophy. So why? Why am I so proud of it? I’m so proud of it because I was able to carry on a tradition that has been with my dad and his family for years.

My dad has hunted since he was little, and he wanted to make sure I was able to do so as well. I have been hunting with him since I was ten years old. Sharing that with him has been so amazing. It’s a tradition like no other. I’m at my most tranquil and happy state of mind when I’m in a treestand with him. I love being able to hunt with him and carry on that tradition with him, and plan to do so with my own kids.

Hunting is so important, and passing it on to future generations is also very important. It keeps the population of deer and other animals in check. It is such an amazing hobby that helps the wildlife of Oklahoma stay in balance. I’m proud to be a hunter, especially a female hunter.

I hope younger generations will get to experience the amazing feeling of being in the woods fifteen feet off the ground, with a serene feeling inside. I feel something special in a treestand. Something I can’t feel anywhere else. I love being in my treestand, and always will. There is no place I’d rather be.

The icy wind hits my cheeks like a thousand needles, but I’m used to it. I’ve sat here and waited just like this many times before. The only noise is the sound of leaves falling off of tree branches. The sun is just going down, and I know now is the best time to see a deer. I had never seen one on a hunt before, but I was determined. I was searching the woods and field for any sign of movement, when my dad tapped me and whispered to me to get my crossbow ready. A surge of adrenaline went through my veins as I slowly turned my head and saw a buck walking towards the feeder on my left. I began taking deep breathes, and pulled the bow up. I had the deer right in my sights, and was ready to let the arrow fly. “Ready?” my dad whispered. I replied, “Never been more.” I pulled the trigger.

This exciting hunt has been made possible by Mike and Karen Helbing, owners of Double Deuce Ranch in Missouri and Wild Wildebeest Safaris in South Africa. This exciting hunt is for one youth hunter and an accompanying adult to travel to both destinations to pursue Missouri whitetail and South African plains game.

Double Deuce Ranch
Located near Powersville, Missouri the Double Deuce Ranch is comprised of 4,500 acres of private land. The ranch, established in 2000, is family owned and operated. The Helbings, along with their sons Benjamin and Jacob, strive to make their guests feel at home and want to make sure you have the best experience possible. In addition to prime whitetail and turkey hunting, Double Deuce Ranch also features a 10 acre lake and 15 ponds full of walleye, bluegill, crappie, largemouth bass, and catfish. Weather permitting the youth hunter and accompanying adult are welcome to do some fishing (or ice fishing) between morning and evening hunts.

The Missouri portion of this hunt is for one youth hunter and an adult observer to stay for 2 days and three nights at the Double Deuce Ranch to hunt whitetail (buck or doe). Double Deuce Ranch comprises 4,500 acres of prime whitetail habitat in northern Missouri along the Iowa border.
Wild Wildebeest Safaris

In addition to the Missouri whitetail hunt the lucky youth hunter and an accompanying adult will also have the opportunity to travel to the Republic of South Africa to pursue plains game with Wild Wildebeest Safaris. Wild Wildebeest Safaris aims to provide superior trophy quality as well the African adventure of a lifetime. Africa has a way of stealing a piece of your heart and this can be especially true when it is viewed through the eyes of a young hunter. Parents should be warned that this is the experience of a lifetime that the youth hunter will never forget.

The South African Safari includes 5 days at Wild Wildebeest Safaris in the Limpopo Province of South Africa. During their time in South Africa both the youth hunter and the accompanying adult will each have the option to take an impala, warthog, and black-backed jackal. Additional days and trophies can be added at current pricing for the year the trip is taken. Wild Wildebeest Safaris can also help organize non-hunting activities for non-hunting travelers or for the hunters after their hunt is completed. Activities could include photo-safaris to local game reserves or national parks, cultural experiences, shopping, and fishing.

HICKORY RIDGE RANCH near Lamar, Oklahoma, includes 2,000 very wild acres under high fence and another 2,000 acres outside the fence, along the South Canadian River. The ranch is professionally managed for whitetail bucks and trophy elk. Owner Denver McCormick has made it possible to offer this very special hunt. Thanks to an intensive management program and limited harvests the deer at Hickory Ridge Ranch have developed a well-balanced age structure. Thanks to this program it is very common to see 3 year old deer ranging in the 130-140” range. While tempting these would be considered pass deer as our age structure and trophy management program provides hunters the opportunity to take deer of at least 4 years old that range anywhere from 140-200” in size!

This hunt provides the opportunity for one lucky hunter to pursue giant whitetail. Though the main property at Hickory Ridge Ranch is high-fenced they have worked hard to keep their wildlife just as wild as free-ranging deer. With 2,000 acres providing excellent cover, ample forage, and several ponds on the property this has not been hard to do. Though the odds of seeing a trophy buck are higher at the ranch due to intense management they still provide a great challenge to hunters pursuing them.
For more than 35 years, SCI’s mission has been to protect the freedom to hunt and promote wildlife conservation worldwide. One of the most proactive hunting advocacy organizations in the world, SCI intervenes in issues related to hunting and conservation. SCI’s members are active in more than 100 countries. They are rifle, shotgun, bow, muzzleloader and handgun hunters. They pursue game of all kinds, from white-tailed deer to waterfowl to the game species of Africa’s savannahs and Asia’s mountains.

SCI is involved at all levels of government. Maintaining a professional staff and lobbyists, SCI carries the voice of the hunter into the halls of Congress, Parliament, state legislatures, courts and international forums such as The Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species, or CITES. SCI ensures that its advocacy is based on sound conservation science. SCI even takes on corporations when their policies harm hunters.

SCI chapters get involved with legislative, regulatory issues and decision-making that affects wildlife management, conservation and hunting.

The staff alerts the chapters to issues and assists them in responding. In addition, once a year the U.S. Chapter Presidents come to Washington, D.C. to educate their elected representatives in Congress about specific issues of interest to hunters.

SCI is fighting in courts and agencies to support and defend hunting as a recreational opportunity, a wildlife management strategy and a conservation tool. Examples include fighting to preserve hunting on National Wildlife Refuges, defending bear hunts in New Jersey and Georgia, opposing the listing of the polar bear, and supporting the delisting of gray wolves and grizzly bears from the endangered species list.

In addition to advancing hunter opportunities on the ground, SCI’s litigation efforts have secured SCI’s position in the hunting and conservation community as one of the most experienced and credible sources of wildlife law expertise.

As a benefit of your Membership, you have access to SCI’s Hunters Hotline. For information on travel advisories, importing trophies and traveling with firearms, call 1-800-711-8315.

The following hunter’s code of ethics is a standard of values to which all members are accountable.

Recognizing my responsibilities to wildlife, habitat and future generations I pledge:

- To conduct myself in the field so as to make a positive contribution to wildlife and ecosystems.

- To improve my skills as a woodsman and marksman to ensure humane harvesting of wildlife.

- To comply with all game laws, in the spirit of fair chase, and to influence my companions accordingly.

- To accept my responsibility to provide all possible assistance to game law enforcement officers.

- To waste no opportunity to teach young people the full meaning of this code of ethics.

- To reflect in words and behavior only credit upon the fraternity of sportsmen, and to demonstrate abiding respect for game, habitat and property where I am privileged to hunt.
For generations, hunters have contributed to their communities. Today, civic work remains a priority among SCI members and Chapters. Notable SCI Foundation programs supported by SCI include:

Sportsmen Against Hunger™
SCIF’s Sportsmen Against Hunger program began in 1989 in an effort to meet food banks’ need for low fat, low cholesterol, preservative-free, high protein meat. Through the network of international SCI Chapters, several thousand volunteer members and friends have provided tens of millions of meals.

Sensory Safari™
SCIF Sensory Safari™ programs offer unique opportunities to the sight impaired by utilizing hundreds of donated animal mounts, skins, skulls, horns and antlers. SCI member volunteers escort children and adults through a maze of touch displays, while describing the animal's size, sounds and habitats. For many, it is their first opportunity to gain a “visual” perspective of what animals are like.

Disabled Hunter™/Pathfinder Award
Through its Chapters, SCI annually coordinates and sponsors hunting trips for disabled sportsmen via the Disabled Hunter™ Program. The annual Pathfinder Award provides worldwide hunting safaris to those who persevere in hunting activities despite overwhelming physical limitations.

SafariCare™
Hunters going to remote regions of the world are provided SafariCare™ blue bags to be filled by Chapters with medical, school and relief supplies that are delivered directly to clinics and schools.

SafariWish™
The SafariWish™ Project is part of SCIF’s SafariCare™ Program, designed to grant hunting and hunting-related wishes to children with life-threatening illnesses.
